My dear Mrs. Morrow.

Have you a clever violin assistant in her late thirties a small scar between her eyes similar to a ^{small} fox near ~~please please~~ tell her that I love her "Oh no dearly" that I have plenty of money, more than enough for both of us

I have been to blame and want her forgiveness, and if she will only will I love you mother; it would make me the happiest woman in the world, tell her no one knows I am writing this letter nor even will. but if I could only see her and tell her how I love her. I then would never interfere with her work or plans but could be happy forever. Tell her she doesn't said a few months ago that I am 100% in good health. also I do not need her help physically or materially but I do need her spiritually. Her reply will be between God and she said I. "Is it asking too much to know she loves me. She is dearer to me than any one has ever been or ever will be please Miss Parlow.

write me.

Oceans of love from her mother

I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on.
I hope you are well and happy.
I have been very busy lately but I have managed to find some time to write to you.
